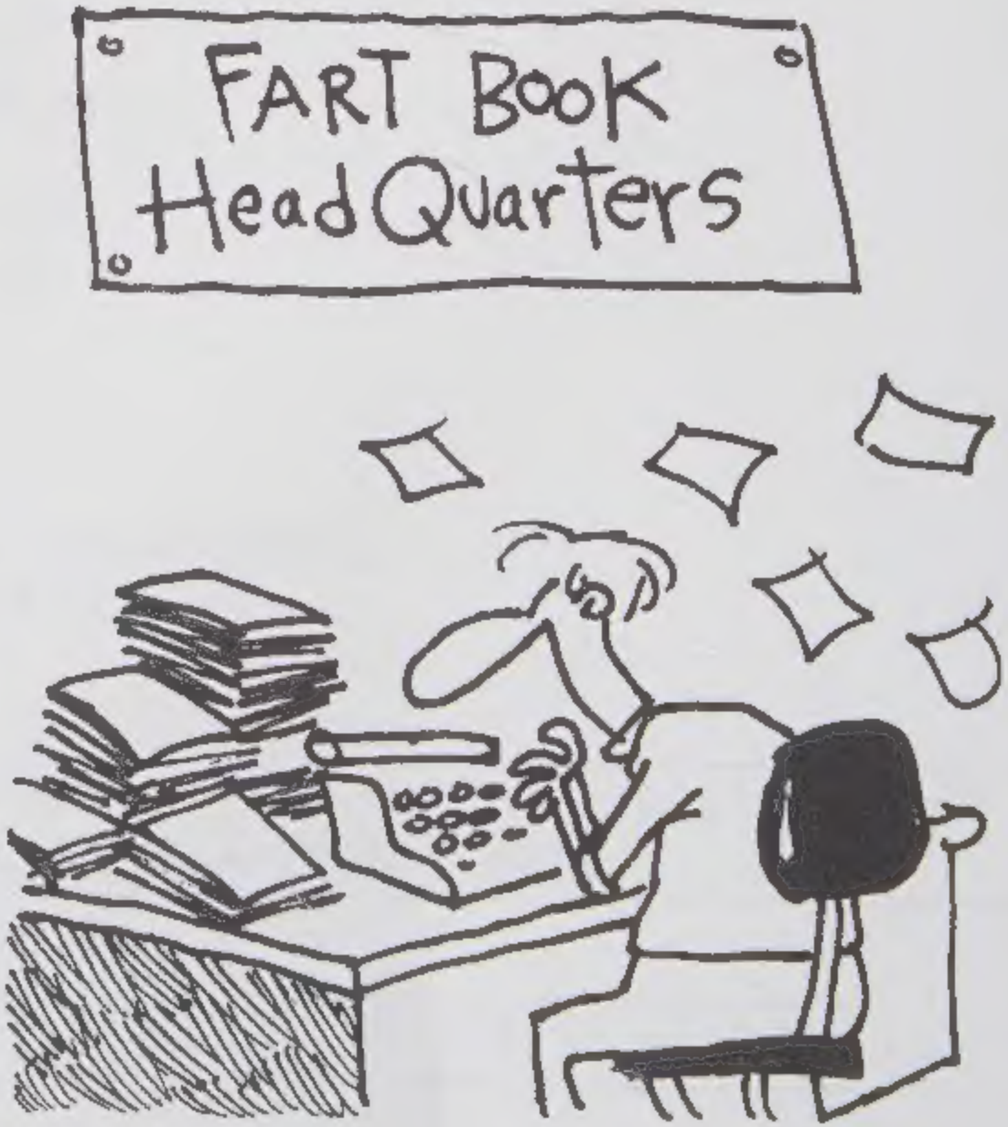
ABOUT THE AUTHOR

When not engaged in frivolous (hugely profitable) writing about farts, Mr. Kavet writes books on intimate body parts (also highly profitable) like "Hooters" (profusely illustrated) and "Big Weenies" (not so profusely illustrated) and other even more intellectual works about sex and bathrooms. You can send money to the address on the title page and we'll send you these books. Mr. Kavet thinks he is still 27 and he lives in Boston where he frequently enjoys farting contests with his younger son.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR



INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

It's not too important what I write here. The kind of people buying a "Students' Guide To Farting" aren't going to waste much time reading introductions. Few, in fact, can read at more than a third grade level and they only bought this book because they thought it might have dirty pictures. Want to know the real reason for this book? At the end of my last fart book, "The Absolutely Worst Fart Book," I invited readers to send in their own worst farts. Lots did and most came from kids, so this seemed a pretty good way to make another $5.95 from these same students (while giving them their own farts back). If I learned to footnote properly when I was in school, I would have given them all credit.

FIGHT CENSORSHIP OF FART BOOKS

Are you tired of having teachers and the big book chains like Walden's and Barnes & Noble and others tell you what to read? Exercise your rights under the Constitution and demand their stores carry fart books. There's no need for you to go all the way to the mall to reach a Spencer Gifts or hunt through endless card shops until you find one gutsy enough to carry a fart book. Write letters to the chains, picket them and ask them to put this book on order.

THE FIRST CLASS OF THE MORNING 'CAUSE MOM RUSHED YOU FART

THE FIRST CLASS OF THE MORNING 'CAUSE MOM RUSHED YOU FART

"Hurry up, you'll miss the bus," "You'll be late," or whatever. Since you have to dress and grab a bite of something, perhaps even put the finishing touches on your homework, it's the toilet time that suffers. Where does that leave you but in your first class where, along with about 20 other farters, the brown fog is so thick you can hardly see the instructor. There's no embarrassment with this one. Safety in numbers, I guess.

THE VEGETARIAN FART

This fart seems almost female, perhaps, because so many vegetarians are female. It is caused, naturally enough, by the whole grains, beans and vegetables that make up their diet. Vegetarians are never embarrassed about their farting, probably because they do it so much, and they'll blast away with a little satisfied smile on their faces.

THE SECOND DATE FART

THE SECOND DATE FART

This is really a non-fart fart, as most guys would sooner burst than fart on a date, and women, well, for women, it's absolutely unthinkable. So, if you see someone in bloated pain and making "second date talk," you can be pretty sure a stifled Second Date Fart is in progress.

THE NURSE'S OFFICE FART

This is the place to do it, right? Nurses are used to natural body functions. They understand, sympathize and hardly notice horrible smells. But there she is, all white and pure and sensitive to your complaints, and it's embarrassing as hell no matter how many times you know she's heard it before.

THE PRINCIPAL'S FART

THE PRINCIPAL'S FART

A rare fart indeed and seldom heard by students. This fart can be a doozie and causes fellow teachers and students to gag as though a poisonous gas attack has been launched. Regardless, no one will ever dare to snicker or recognize the existence of this fart.

THE CAFETERIA FART

More common than anyone will admit and it's fortunate the noise level in your average cafeteria is so high that the sound of this fart often goes unnoticed. It's also fortunate that the aroma is masked by the odor of the many overcooked vegetables, tuna sandwiches and nameless meats in the steam tables, otherwise, no one would bother to eat at all.

THE TEACHER'S FART

THE TEACHER'S FART

You think it's easy standing up there in front of a class all day assigning homework and pressing students with questions? How would you like to go all that time knowing that the tiniest fart will not only be heard by 20 people, but will also surely dissolve the entire class into hysterics? Now you know the real reason for Teachers' Lounges, a secluded area where some intestinal relief can be experienced.

THE LIBRARY FART

You can get away with a silent fart here, especially if you sit very still and let the odor rise straight up to the hopefully high ceiling. But if it's a noisy one, you'll be caught dead away and left with no choice but to bury your head in your book with a look of intense concentration while adjusting your chair a little to create an element of doubt from the covering noises.

THE GLEE CLUB FART

THE GLEE CLUB FART

Oh, it's a cinch to get away with this one. All those people packed together, singing at the top of their lungs. No one can ever find the guilty party and, unless it's a real stinkaroo, it won't even affect the quality of the voices.

THE GYM FART

These are a dime a dozen and common as sweat. No one can ever identify the guilty party, what with all the noise and movement, and if the truth be known, no one really cares. It's too natural an environment, with good, earthy sweat smells and bodies straining, to worry about a fart or two. Hell, you can always dribble or bounce away from it should it be bothersome.

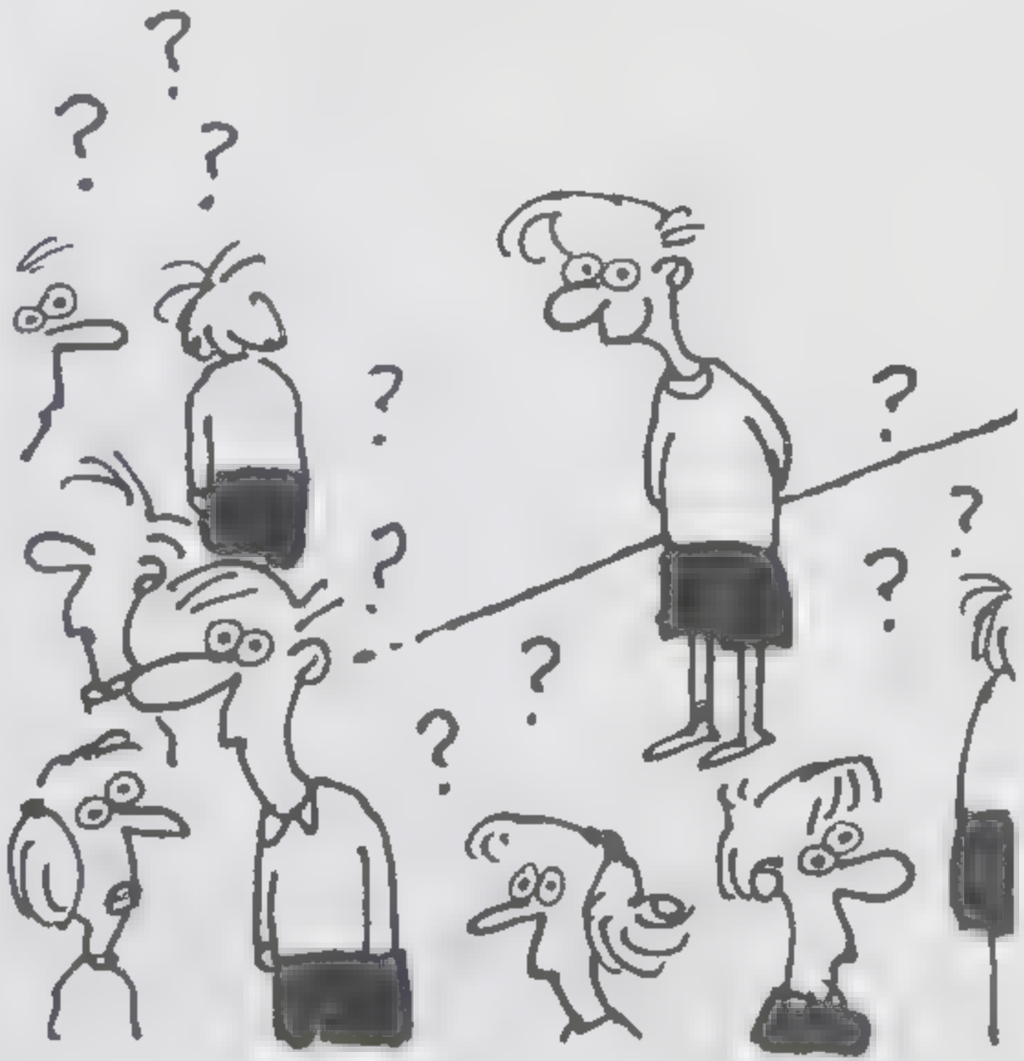
aaaa

THE MALL FART



THE MALL FART

Malls are a farter's dream. They're big and airy and everyone is moving about, and you can absolutely get away with murderous farts. I can confess here among like-minded friends that I've been using malls for years for some of my worst farts, and I've never been detected.

THE ROCK CONCERT FART

Hey, who knows, who cares, who could even think of a fart at a time like this. If you're body-surfing, perhaps, but otherwise it's a free-fire zone.

THE CHEMISTRY LAB FART

What a great place to blame it on the sulfur dioxide! Squeeze out a silent one at the right time and it might get you an "A." As every chemistry major knows, on the other hand, farts are an explosive mixture and an open flame has the potential to blow your pants off. This hardly ever happens, however.

THE ENGLISH TEACHER FART

This fart is pure elegance. It's intellectual and upper class and its tone identifies it as a fart with breeding and culture. No bombarding explosion or insipid pheet noises here, but more a dignified pop which, due to the bland diet of English Professors, has hardly any odor at all. Jolly good.

THE PROFESSOR FART

THE PROFESSOR FART

I can see him now, glaring down at his class through the strangely old-fashioned spectacles perched on his nose, his white hair astray and a defiant tilt to his head. Dare any student even notice the fart of a man like this?

THE WOMAN PROFESSOR FART

Women professors don't fart. It's doubtful they go to the toilet, menstruate or have orgasms, but they definitely don't fart.

THE WOMAN PROFESSOR FART

THE LANGUAGE LAB FART

THE LANGUAGE LAB FART

Thank God for the earphones and even more if they have those little partitions. With that kind of modern set up, you can learn to fart in French (a phhhht, phhhht sound), Serbo-Croatian (a guttered mumble) or Spanish (a sing song melody) with no embarrassing glances or comments. It should be noted that some students of farting think the culturally different sounds are due more to diet than any linguistic reason.

THE WALKMAN FART

There they go, bopping along, ignoring the world, its sounds and smells. Watch the gal or guy in a world of their own, moving to their personal beat, in the midst of a fog of some sort, and know they are guilty as hell. But since they didn't hear it, they think it just didn't happen and go on their way, oblivious to all. Accuse them and they'll think your some kind of square cretin.

THE WALKMAN FART

THE TELEPHONE FART

THE TELEPHONE FART

Some of my close friends claim they can hear my farts over the phone, but I think they're exaggerating. Telephone farting is one of the joys of life where you can be close to a person and still far enough way to be able to fart with pungent stinkers and wall-shaking explosions in almost total privacy. Technology is grand, isn't it?

THE ROOMMATE FART

A roommate is someone you grow very close to, sort of like a spouse, and farting amongst roommates is something that usually passes with casual indifference, except when you room with Jerry Junkfood as I did in my freshman year. Jerry's diet consisted almost exclusively of junk food: tacos and fries and hamburgers and pizza and all washed down by weasel piss, cleverly disguised as cheap beer. God only knows why his parents bothered paying his meal fee.

Man could Jerry fart. Jerry's farts curled the paint off walls, corroded chrome fixtures and caused electrical appliances to short out. When Jerry farted, you had to leave the floor. Staying in the room itself was beyond the realm of possibility. It's frightening to room with a creature like that. In his sophomore year, Jerry applied for, and easily obtained, a single. Last I heard, he was a proctologist in Schenectady.

THE FINAL EXAM FART

THE FINAL EXAM FART

This is a nervous fart, no doubt about it, and it affects almost everyone at one time or another. It doesn't matter much what you ate or drank the night before. If the exam is important to you, you'll probably be gassy as hell. The Final Exam Fart is God's way of telling you that you should have payed more attention in class all semester. Everyone else, of course, is in exactly the same state. You can fart your brains out and no one will notice.

FINAL EXAM DREAMS

You may get out of school some day, but for the rest of your life, you'll dream about final exams. In the dream, you haven't studied and can't find the exam hall and don't know a thing about the subject and you're not going to graduate. I don't know of anyone who dreams about the Final Exam Fart during the Final Exam Dream, but in case they do, I thought I'd mention this dream phenomenon here.

THE SALAD BAR FART

THE SALAD BAR FART

As diets change, so do the menus and facilities, and many schools offer salad bars in their cafeterias. Salads are always a particular favorite with coeds. Now salads are healthy and low in calories and full of fiber. But raw veggies like broccoli and cauliflower and green peppers, which human stomachs were never designed to digest, result in the Salad Bar Fart. It has, at least, a certain earthy wholesomeness about it and would probably be acceptable in society if coeds weren't so damned embarrassed about them.

THE SLEEPING ROOM FART

In our fraternity house, we had a sleeping room on the top floor. The concept was sound. The room was always quiet and dark with windows open so brothers could sleep there any time of the day or night. This was before the sexual revolution so that part of sleep wasn't a problem. At any rate, to keep the room fresh, a giant exhaust fan was installed in the ceiling which sucked out all the odors and farts and incidentally, any residual heat from the room. It sort of operated on the same principle as a refrigerator. This left a fart-free but freezing sleeping room where you could always breath the air, provided your lungs could take the frosty temperatures of a Boston winter.

THE SLEEPING ROOM FART

THE MORNING AFTER FART

THE MORNING AFTER FART

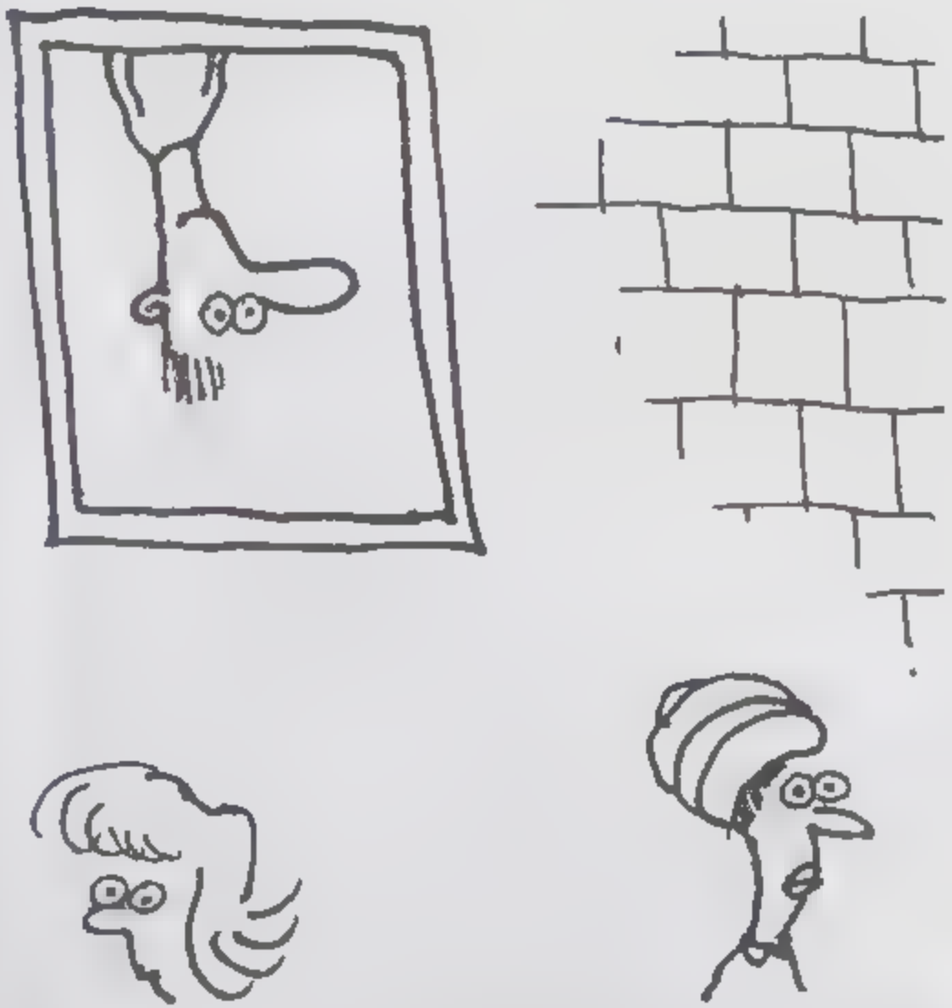
Party all night and your system repays you the next day by farting out all the poisons. These are rank farts, no doubt about it, and noisy ones. The noise is no great comfort to your hangover either. Hopefully you're back in the privacy of your own room by then because anyone you met the night before is not going to be impressed any longer.

THE LOCKER ROOM FART—MEN

This is macho territory and guys like to fart in locker rooms. You're as likely to get a fart back in response as an "ugh" of disgust. Farting in a locker room is a point of pride with all jocks, and their prestige rises with a particularly offensive performance.

THE LOCKER ROOM FART—MEN

THE LOCKER ROOM FART—WOMEN



THE LOCKER ROOM FART—WOMEN

Well, to be honest, I don't really know much about Women's Locker Room Farts. Sure, it's been a lifelong fantasy to visit the place but campus police, not to mention strapping, athletic, outraged women, always prevented the research. I'd appreciate comments from you readers and any invitations to visit.

THE LIGHT-YOUR-FART FART

A college favorite from the time fire was just invented. Every dorm and fraternity has a pair of assholes who delight in this activity, and if done correctly, it certainly impresses the freshmen. Hold the flame too close, however, or light a weak spreading fart, and you're in danger of singeing your nether region.

THE LIGHT-YOUR-FART FART

THE UNDER THE COVERS ROOMMATE FART

THE UNDER THE COVERS ROOMMATE FART

A fart of a polite roommate of either sex. This is a considerate friend who will try to muffle their farts by delicately emitting them under drawn covers. Next, the farter lies very still so none of the odor escapes. This whole exercise is ridiculous because it never works, but only delays the onset of the smell. A fast sleeper, of course, can be in dream land before the roommate even reacts.

THE CD FART

The CD Fart is kind of a technical fart where the farter farts in time to the music. He or she may not even know what's happening, but the overall effect with a skilled person is not at all unpleasant. The whole exercise is better with farts of the *NBH variety.

*Noisy But Harmless

THE CD FART

THE BODY PIERCING FART

THE BODY PIERCING FART

People are piercing some pretty intimate parts of their bodies these days. I've heard of this fart only by rumor and don't know if it truly exists, but you can imagine the weird noises coming from the new orifices and gold rings and all. The thought is enough to make you squeeze your legs together and go back to your history homework.

THE TACO FART

It's probably more the beans than the taco stuff that gives this fart its reputation. Still, the hot sauce and grease and beans generate a build up whose tone and aroma are unmistakable. Think of a Mexican bus station toilet and you'll have an idea of this monster.

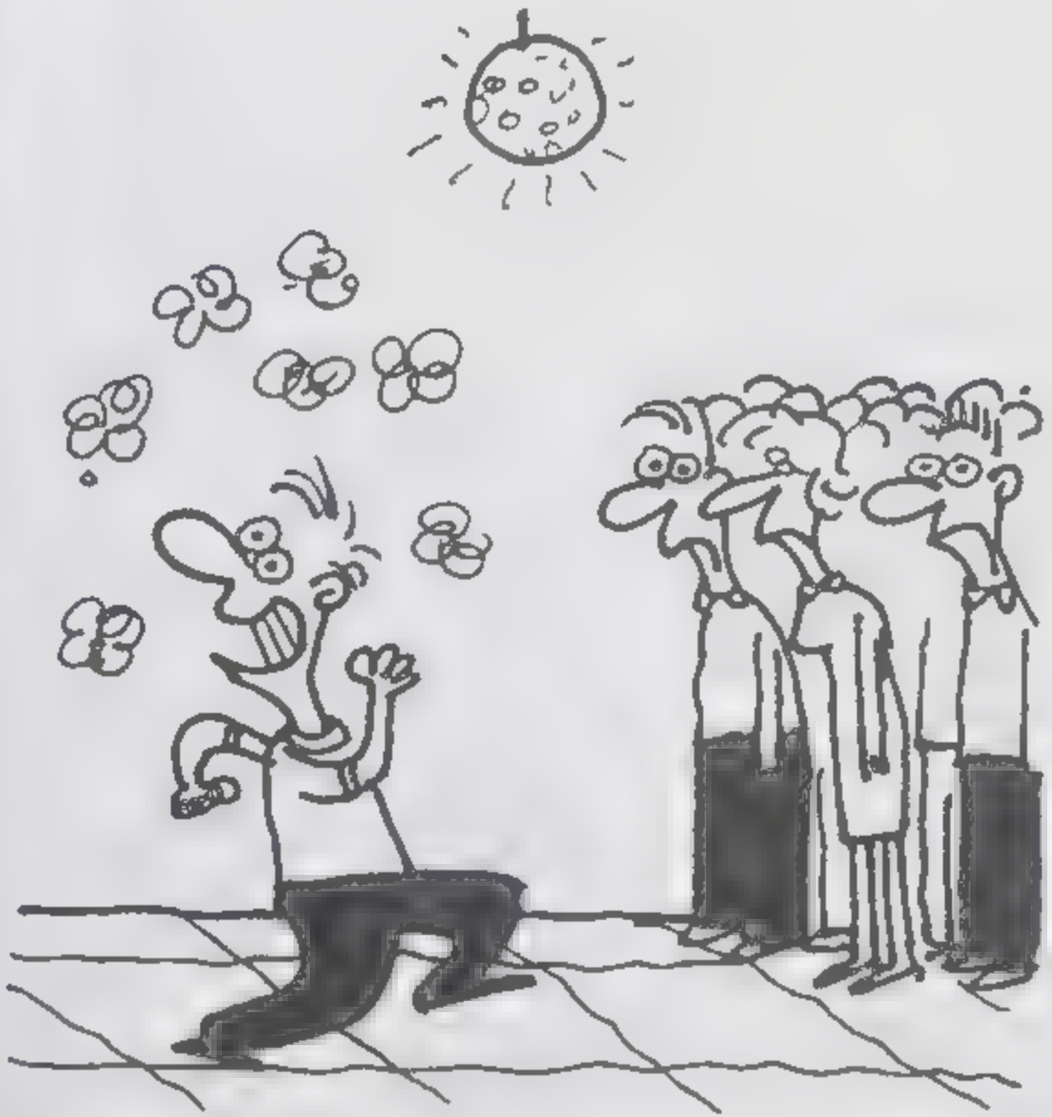
THE DANCING FART



THE DANCING FART

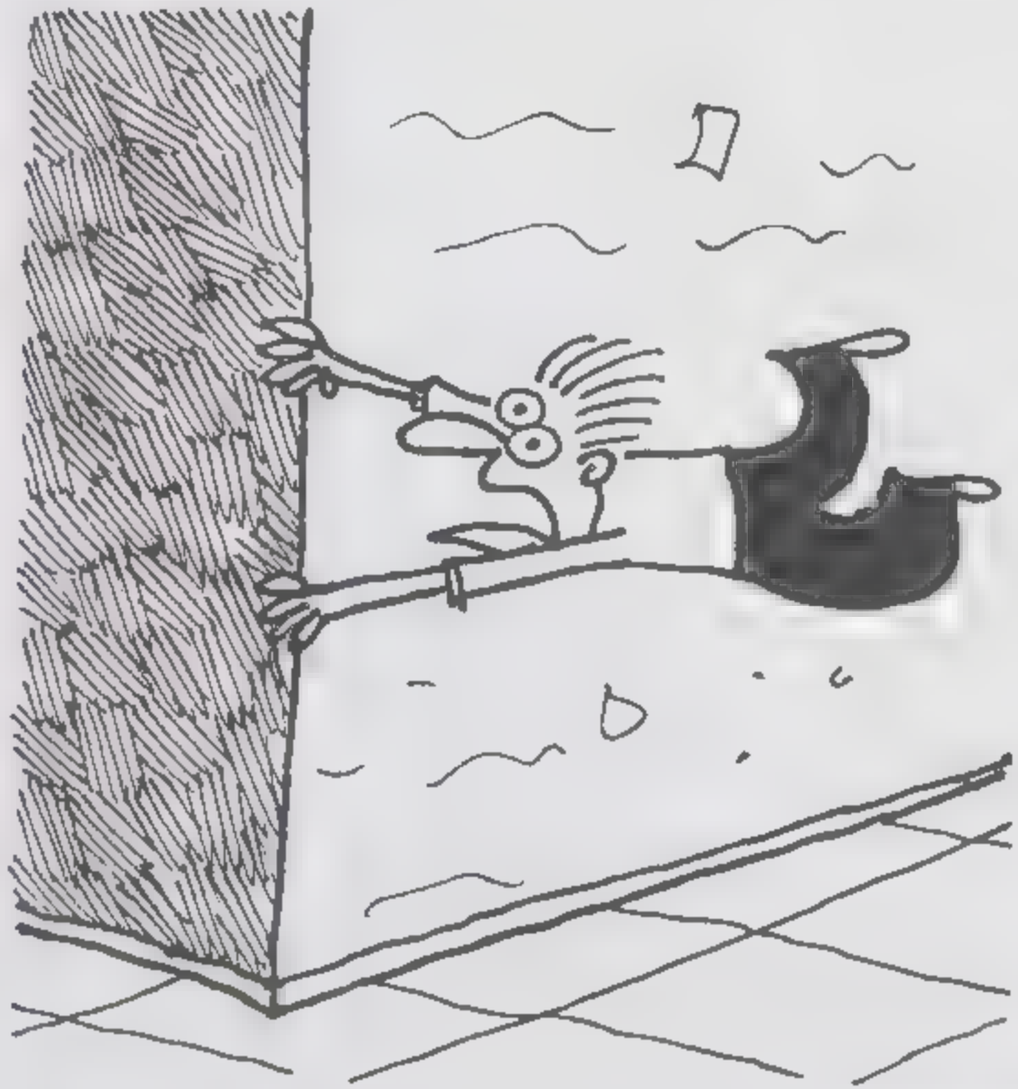
An easy one to lose sight of, so to speak, what with all the jiggling and noise. It's almost always unnoticed even by your partner in the unlikely event you're near the person your dancing with. The overheated bodies, the beat, the motion—go ahead and fart. No one will ever notice.

THE TV FART

A "kick back and relax" fart delivered from a happy soul, not too intellectually stimulated at the moment. This fart can be muffled on a cushioned chair or enhanced by bouncing off a fine leather surface. To identify its exact type, you have to do a little research in this and our previous fart books, combing the descriptions to determine the exact character such as the Morning After Fart, Taco Fart, Beer Fart and TV Fart, if you see what I mean.

THE TV FART

THE WIND TUNNEL FART



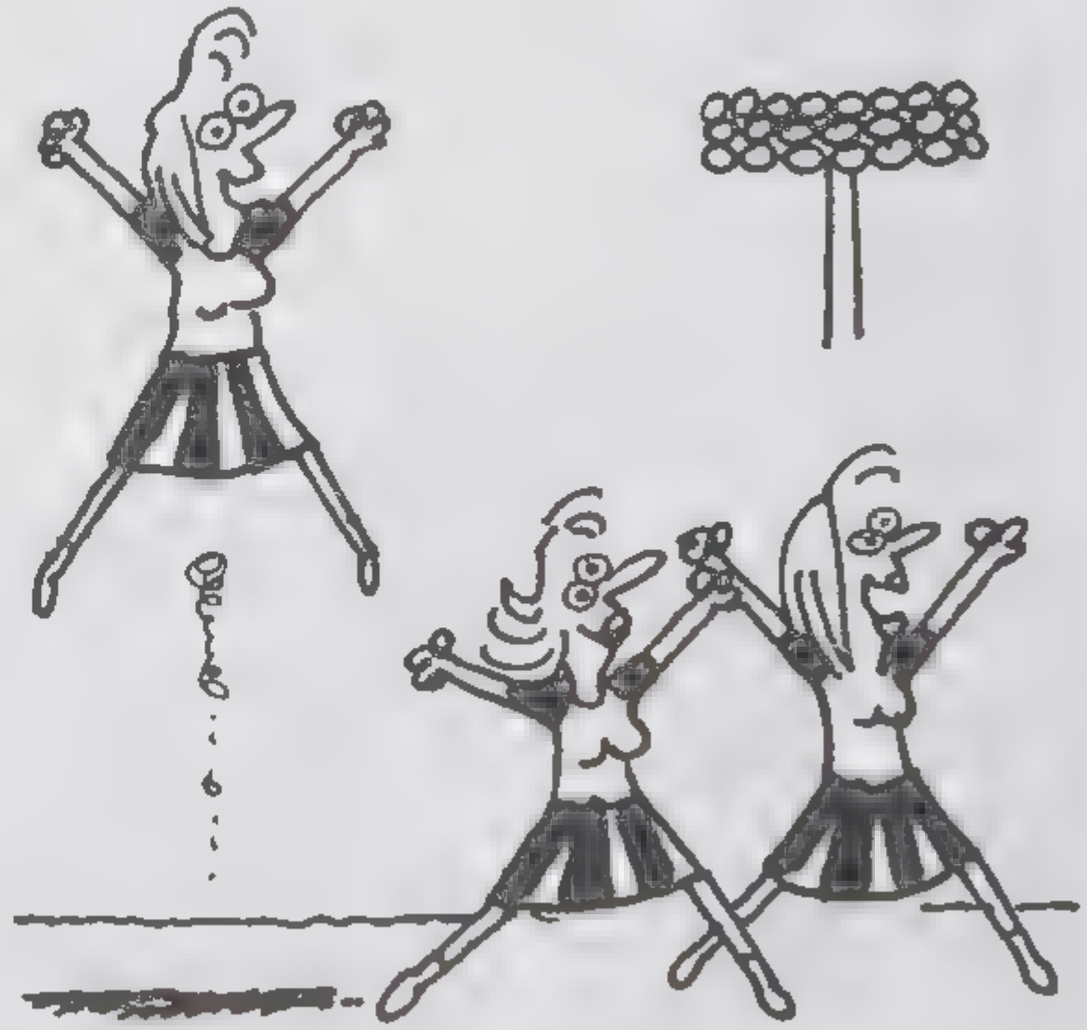
THE WIND TUNNEL FART

I know, I know, not that many schools have their own wind tunnel, but if yours does and you're embarrassed about your farting, it's worth taking an aerodynamic course because it's one hell of a great place to lose a fart. Noise, volume and smell have no meaning here.

THE CHEERLEADER FART

Guys can't believe this one. For that matter, most guys can't believe girls fart at all. Hah! Ask some knowledgeable cheerleader and she'll tell you about farts that can knock a pom-pom off. The Cheerleader Fart comes from within a taut young body and may be small, but it often exits with a sharp high-pitched sound. An experienced cheerleader will do it in beat with the cheer so you'll never notice.

THE CHEERLEADER FART



THE BAND FART

THE BAND FART

This is an all smell fart. Sound has no meaning. The music may hide the noise, but the band is all packed together and everyone knows a fart has been farted. Identification of the guilty party can be difficult, but look for the person concentrating on the music with an intense, sincere look and you'll be right 90% of the time.

THE ALL-NIGHT-BINGE FART

Oh, this is a bad one. Not during the all night binge, unfortunately, when it could be a source of amusement, but when you wake up the next day and the hangover is just cutting in. This is a deep rumbly fart as though the very depth of the bowels are erupting and casting forth all the filth and poisons that were consumed during the long, fun-filled night, which indeed is exactly what's happening. The binge fart is notable for the length of each emission, which can go on and on and on, filling the poor sufferer's room with a dark brown cloud.

THE ALL-NIGHT-BINGE FART

THE HICCUP FART

THE HICCUP FART

This is a rather rare fart but always a great source of entertainment for your friends. It's done by hiccupping and then farting. If done correctly, this sequence will be repeated several times and is guaranteed to dissolve everyone within ear shot into laughter. The record repeat was 8 at my school.

THE PARENT FART

I'm not referring here to Dad's farts which, like all dads' farts, have a particularly distinctive odor that you remember all your life. The Parent Fart is one you fart when you get especially upset over something your parents are going to do like when they see your grades. The Parent Fart, or perhaps a better name would be the Parent Inspired Fart, is not necessarily rank or noisy, but more a sort of pap pap pop, which is an indication of a very troubled intestine.

THE PARENT FART

THE NIKE FART

THE NIKE FART

Ha, ha. Fooled you. This isn't a fart at all but the squeak of your new Nikes on a linoleum floor. Trouble is, everyone else thinks it's a fart so you might as well have done it. It's useless to deny actually farting, so most people try to duplicate the sound several times to show everyone it was an innocent noise. Sometimes this works and sometimes they think you're dancing around like an idiot for no reason.

THE GUIDANCE COUNSELLOR FART

Guidance Counsellors fart just like everyone else, it's just that their office is smaller, and so the fart tends to linger. Also they have to listen to these terrible excuses and tales of woe all day which are bound to affect their insides. Many of the tears that issue forth in Guidance Counsellors' offices are due to eyes smarting from the day's accumulation of farts.

THE GUIDANCE COUNSELLOR FART

THE LIBRARIAN FART

THE LIBRARIAN FART

This fart always seems much louder than it really is. Librarians are such quiet people that when they have a little gas problem, it's almost a matter for the school board. Librarians can describe a fart much better than the rest of us cause they have so many words available. Doesn't "crepitation" sound much more dignified than "blowing a big one?"

THE FOOTBALL COACH FART

Coaches fart all the time because they're one of the boys and they love to fart in locker rooms. When they get excited at critical moments during big games, their farts sound like machine gun fire. That's how rapidly they fart. But exciting moments in football games are noisy moments and since the game is played outdoors, no one knows much about the football coach except the person who washes his underwear.

THE MATH TEACHER FART

THE MATH TEACHER FART

This is a fart by your math teacher who couldn't get a job as a computer programmer making big bucks at a time when anyone could get a job as a computer programmer. Does this sound like someone you know? If he got that job, he could probably have worked at home and farted to his or maybe her content where no one would mind. But now he (or rarely she) harangues you from the front of the class and sneers at you and his farts sound like PHISH PHISH, should you be so unfortunate as to sit near the front of the class.

THE SCIENCE TEACHER FART

This teacher is different from your math teacher who couldn't get a job programming. Your science teacher took this job because she or he was dedicated to bringing a scientific education to numbskulls like you who couldn't give a damn. To bring this learning to you, the science teacher gave up a high paying career in industry and he or she tries to remind you of this every week. Many of the experiments a science teacher does are cleverly designed to hide the smells of their emissions. Watch carefully when any sort of flame is used and you'll see what I mean.

THE SCIENCE TEACHER FART

THE THANK-GOD-I'VE-GOT-A-SINGLE FART

THE THANK-GOD-I'VE-GOT-A-SINGLE FART

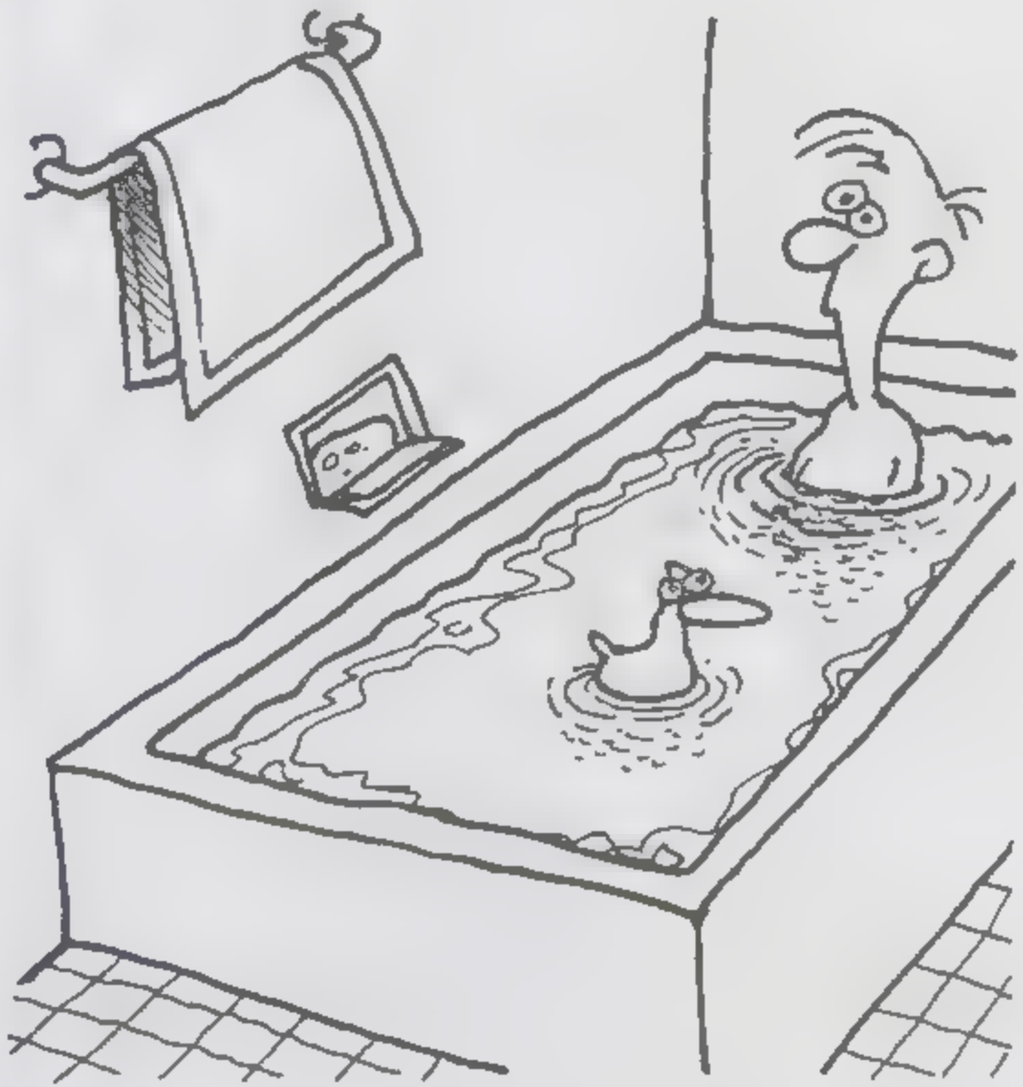
This is such a terrible fart that even atheists say a silent prayer when they fart it, thanking God they drew a single room. If they are not alone in a single, of course, the fart immediately becomes an "Oh My God Fart" as the farter realizes he (she's rarely fart this fart) has gone too far this time. Many students are drawn back to their religious roots and even start talking to the chaplain after experiencing this most horrible fart.

THE HANGING OUT FART

A bunch of guys hanging out, the FHOOMB FHOOMB of an average fart and most likely no one will even turn around. This casual attitude changes, of course, if the aroma is particularly ripe and, depending on the energy level of the group, they will just sort of sidle away from the farter or scream down imprecations.

THE HANGING OUT FART

THE FISH FART



THE FISH FART

This is more a diet fart than a student fart but so many students are avoiding meat these days that including it seemed appropriate. The Fish Fart is distinguished by its sound, "ploat, ploat, ploat," its small volume and its mild but annoying odor. Fish Fart farters think they are so healthy, but most of them end up having their intestines punctured by fish bones which changes the sound of their farts to "phsst phsst."

THE GEEK FART

The funnv thing about The Geek Fart is that the geek doesn't even realize he's done anvthing. So much of his school career is spent outside the mainstream that when students amble awav because of his fart, he hardlv notices. Geek Farts are silent, thev're toxic and thev linger for hours. Fortunatelv, Geek Farts are predictable. Geeks get nervous before tests and are most likelv to fart at times of stress. Sitting next to a geek mav help vou cheat on an exam, but vou do so at your own risk.

THE GEEK FART

THE GYMNAST FART

THE GYMNAST FART

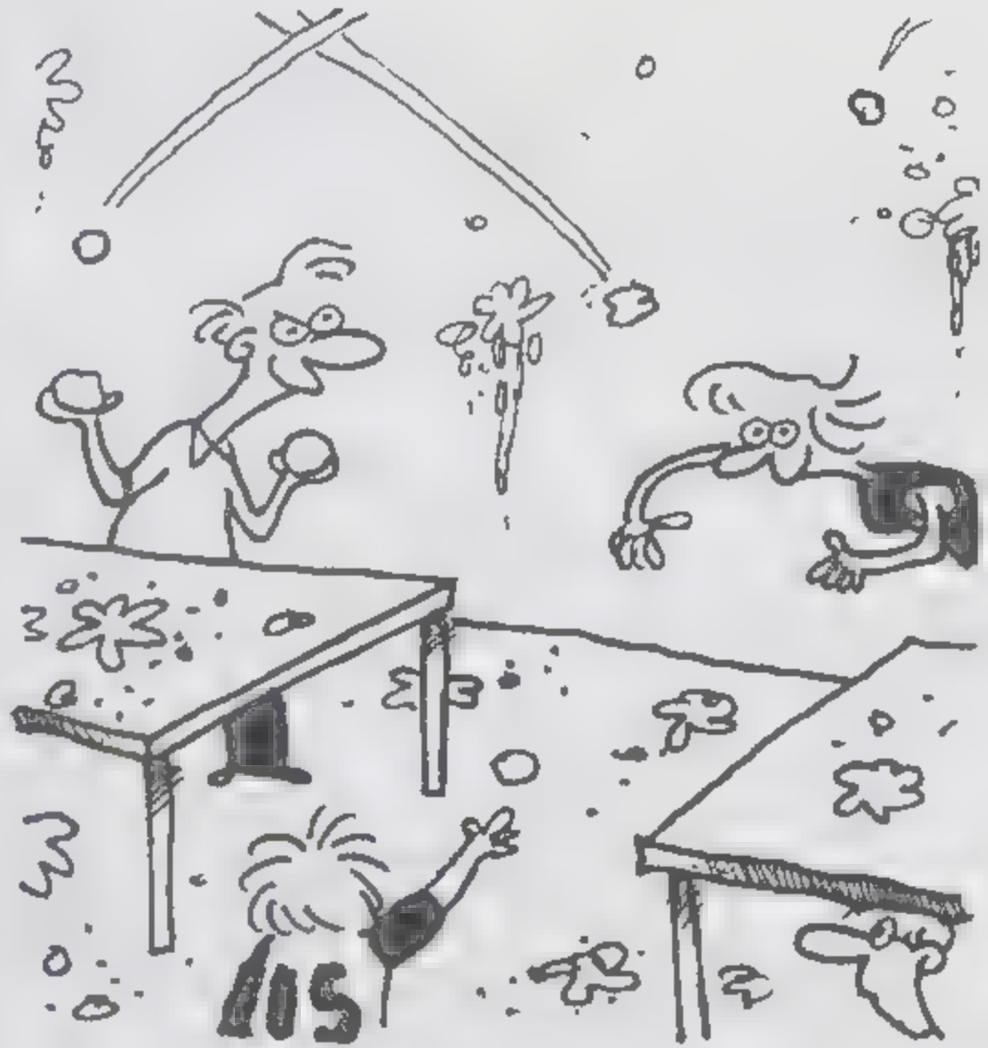
Gymnasts hardly ever fart. Their lithe healthy bodies efficiently process what they're supposed to process, at least most of the time. But when they fart, watch out. Guys just wouldn't believe the explosions that come out of their petite figures. In one practice session, and I have this on excellent authority, a 98 pound gymnast blew her teammate off a balance beam while bending to do a toe touch. Enough said.

THE TEACHING ASSISTANT FART

Teaching assistants are practically students themselves and they fart just like the rest of your friends. Except, teaching assistants can affect your grades so you can't go "Ooooh, ugh, who cut the sour one?" every time they let a little one slip. A new teaching assistant will be so nervous the first time she or he is up in front of a class that serious gastric disturbances are a given, and this creates a terrific demand for seats in the rear of the classroom.

THE TEACHING ASSISTANT FART

THE DREADED LUNCHROOM FART



THE DREADED LUNCHROOM FART

Everyone is familiar with this fart and everyone dreads it. You're enjoying lunch with a pleasant group of friends and someone lays a deep one. When the company is mixed, everyone grows embarrassed and the delicate game of identifying the culprit begins. Since this isn't a group of hairy guys where you can just BLURT out "Max, you're a disgusting animal," identifying the farter takes on more subtle sociological actions involving eye contact, slight body shifting, meaningful stares and perhaps when the offender is nailed, a slight giggle.

FIXING THE BLAME

With any group of friends, fixing the blame is one of the more enjoyable parts of farting. This game is fraught with danger. With a noisy fart, the culprit is often quickly identified, but a skilled player can often shift the blame with a quick "Harry?" drawing everyone's attention away from himself and onto innocent Harry.

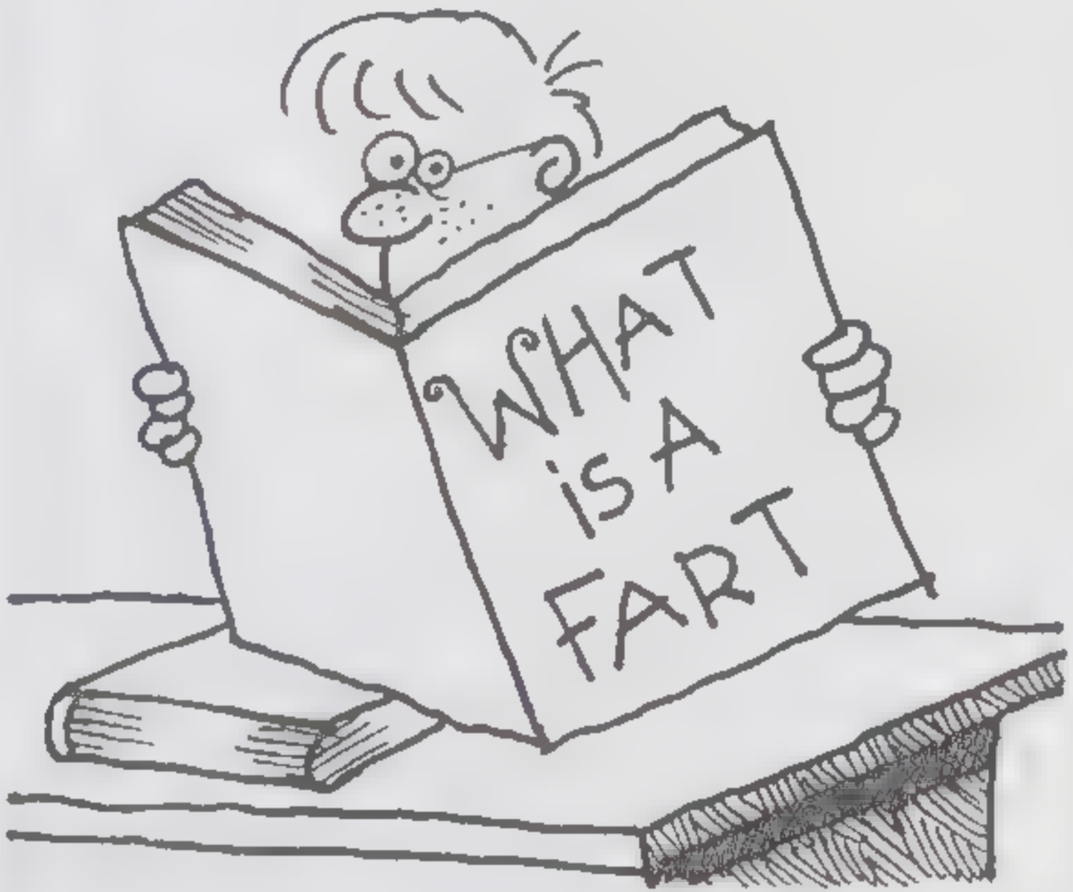
WHAT IS A FART ANYWAY



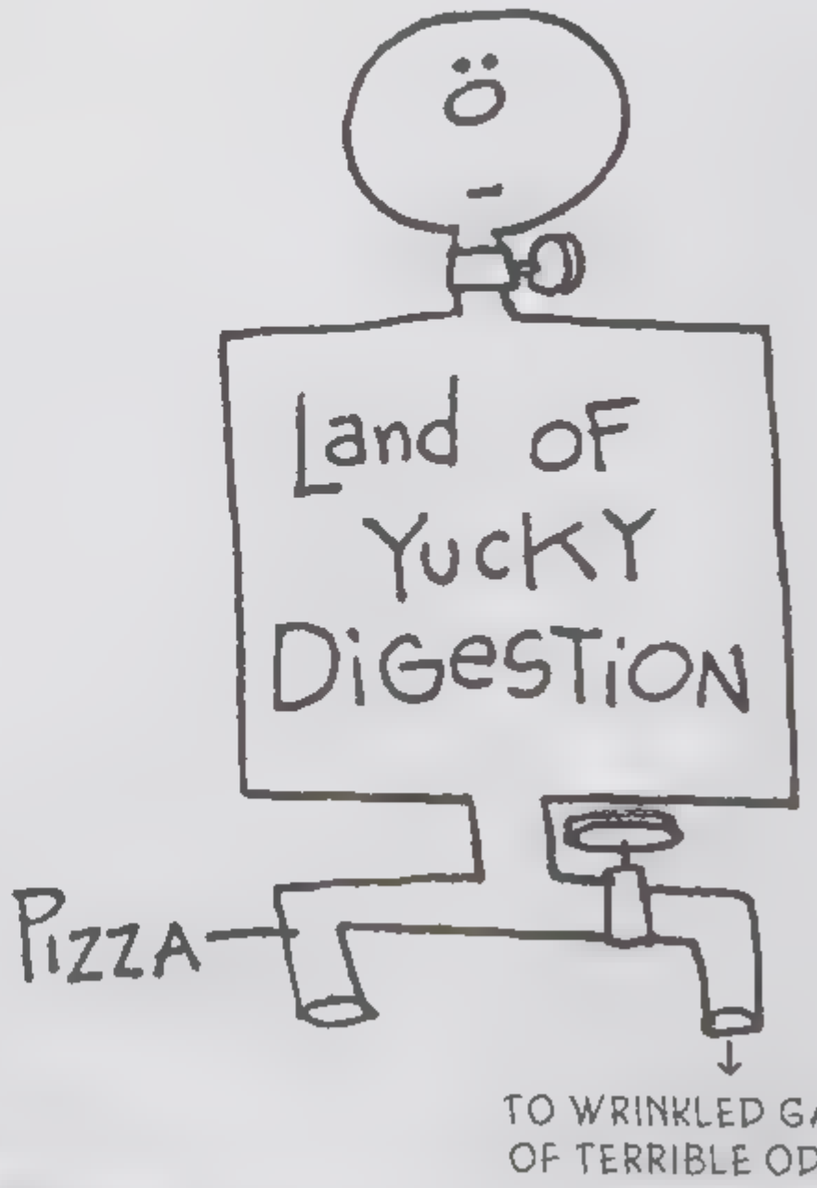
WHAT IS A FART ANYWAY

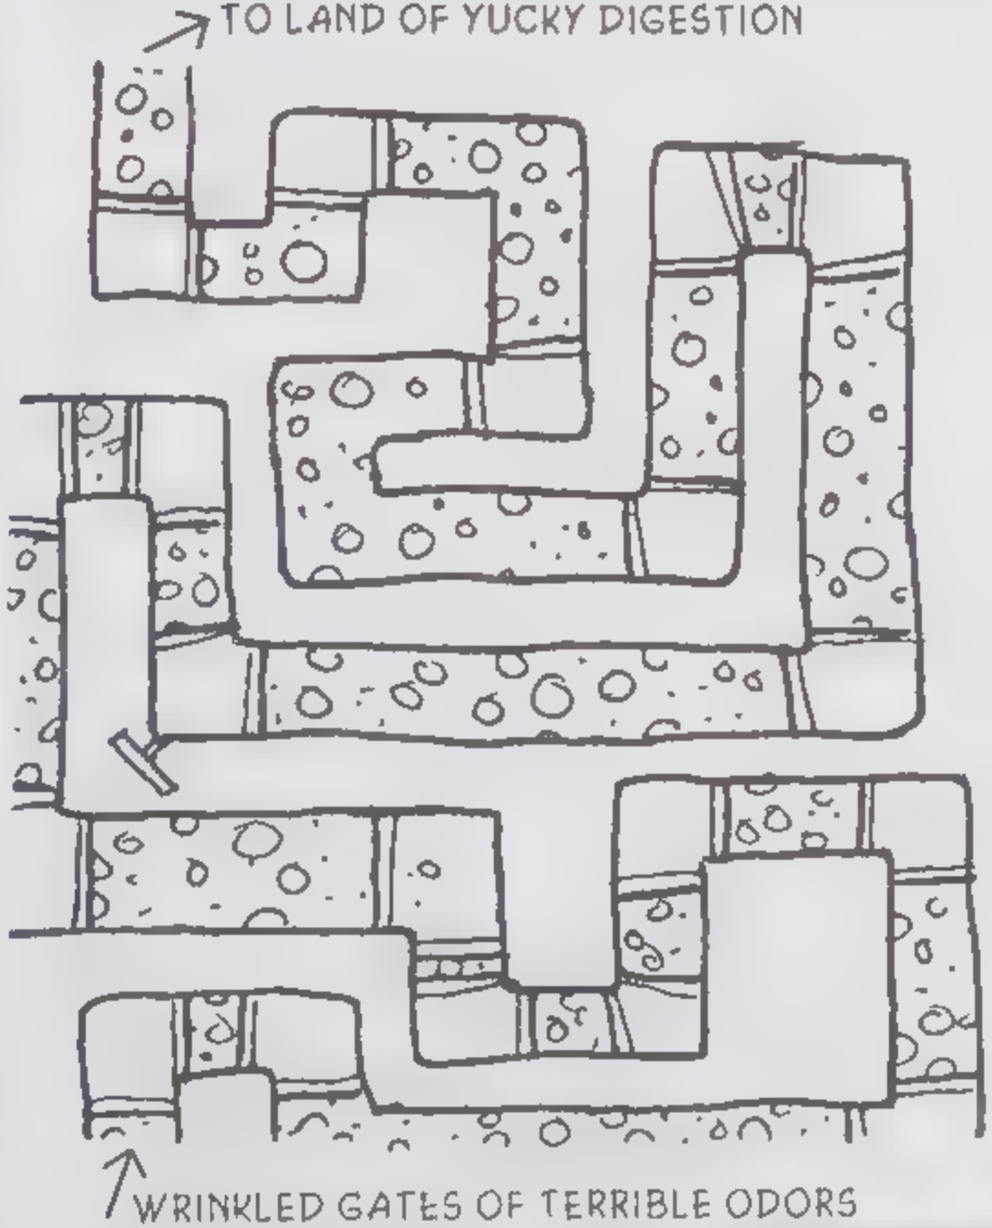
Did you ever stop to think about what a fart is? Hopefully not. This is a subject that should be left to experts. Amateurs mucking around thinking of farts and describing them are what gave the whole farting business a bad name in the first place. A fart is a pocket of air surrounded by shit. Where does it come from? Well, if you spent as much time paying attention in your science or chemistry class as you do reading books like this, you'd know the pocket of air comes from fermenting and chemical reactions and enzymes and stuff like that. I don't really know, 'cause I spent my time reading books like this, too, and only passed chemistry by sitting next to Herman Goldfinkle and cheating.

WHAT IS A FART ANYWAY

All farts start life hidden in the Land of Yucky Digestion. The Land of Yucky Digestion twists and turns with lots of switchbacks, loops and dark tunnels. Some foods passing through the land want to travel fast, like prunes or apricot jams, while others, such as pepperoni pizza and fried dough, like to loll about and travel slowly. Their different rates of speed open !ittle pockets in the goo as it moves along through the duodenum and cilia and test tubes (or is it testes. I forget). As this pocket expands from the aforementioned fermenting and chemical stuff, it takes on a life of its own, floating and bobbing and growing.

WHAT IS A FART ANYWAY





WHAT IS A FART ANYWAY

When the bubble reaches the Fat Land of Yucky Digestion, which adjoins the Narrow Land, it is pretty well surrounded by shit and can truly be called a fart.

To exit the body, the bubble of fart must pass through the Wrinkled Gates of Terrible Odors. Depending on the size of the bubble and how forcefully it goes through the gates and whether the gates are tightly shut or slightly open, the fart assumes its telltale character of size and smell and noise.

Now after reading that, tell me this isn't a serious book with great potential as a science project or book report, which leads us to the next section.

HOW TO DO A BOOK REPORT ON THIS FART GUIDE

First, use the original Slovenian title, Der Futz Frum Der Butz Unt Der Putz (English teachers are fascinated by obscure works). Tell the teacher you picked up a smattering of the language at summer camp. Feel free to plagiarize. I'll never complain and she'll never read this book. Emphasize the philosophical and sociological elements that you find in each fart. If you think your English teacher will be offended by "fart," substitute sneeze or burp or hiccup. It'll work just as well. Don't bother with footnotes.

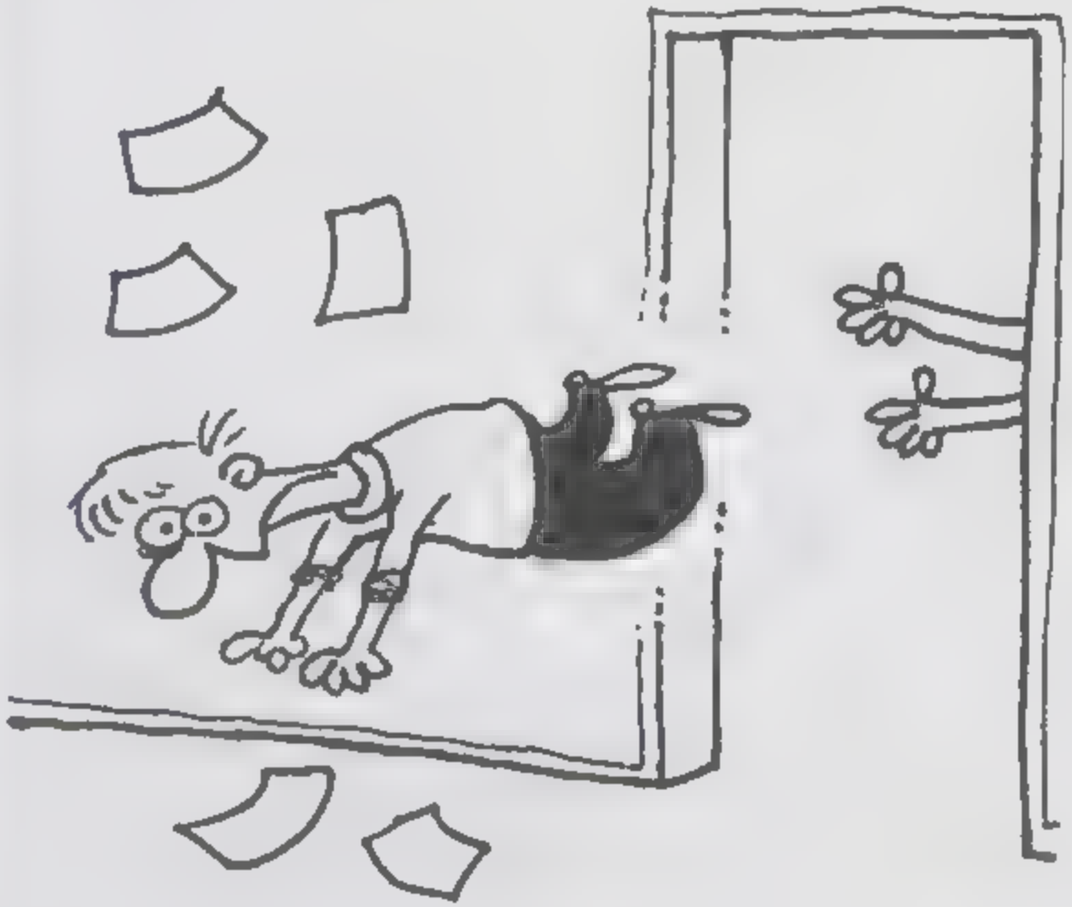
HOW TO TURN THIS BOOK INTO A SCIENCE PROJECT



HOW TO TURN THIS BOOK INTO A SCIENCE PROJECT

Look at all those diagrams and scientific language on pages 58-59. This is the basis for a great science project (chemistry or biology). Don't be shy about Xeroxing it. That's why we're including detailed drawings. Flesh it out a bit with a few of your own farts and you'll probably make it to the state championships and win a scholarship to college.

THE CLASSROOM FART

I did this fart once in second grade. It was a loud, sharp, totally unexpected report that dissolved the class into laughter. Mrs. Leprechaun didn't think it was so funny and angrily asked if I had to use the "lavatory." I shook my head "no," not being absolutely certain what a lavatory was, and just tried to disappear into my desk.

THE CLASSROOM FART

THE TRUTH ABOUT PRETTY GIRLS' FARTS

THE TRUTH ABOUT PRETTY GIRLS' FARTS

Men and boys can't imagine a pretty young woman actually farting. They are of the old "Place Them On A Pedestal" school of thought. Nowadays, with coed dorms and more mingling of the sexes, most boys know that even pretty girls fart, but still the feeling lingers that, if they do, like maybe they have a stomach virus. At the very least, this group thinks the fart is silent and doesn't smell at all.

THE TRUTH ABOUT BIG JOCKS' FARTS

I'm about to explode a myth. Big jocks don't necessarily fart big manly farts. As often as not, they fart little wimpy farts with no volume, noise or lasting odor. It's the little wiry guys with junky diets you have to watch out for when it comes to real farts.

THE TRUTH ABOUT BIG JOCKS' FARTS

THE ABORTION FART

THE ABORTION FART

This is not a political book nor a politically correct or incorrect author or publisher, and we certainly don't want to get involved in the abortion controversy and even more, we don't want to get ourselves picketed or shot, but for completeness' sake, we felt this fart should be included.

The Abortion Fart is strictly a female fart and a fart of such volume and intensity that it feels like your insides are coming out. This fart is almost painful but once over, gives a relaxing feeling of relief. Some women drop two sizes after a fart like this.

MY FARTS AND YOUR FARTS

Most students are rather proud of their own farts and disgusted by everyone else's. This phenomenon continues until you are married and then, if you're lucky, your wife will tolerate your farts, but don't count on it. This incredible phenomenon is summarized below.

My farts are satisfying	Yours are disgusting
Mine are newsworthy	Yours are annoying
My farts are dignified	Yours are noisy
Mine are aromatic	Yours are smelly
My farts are original	Yours are rude
Mine are imaginative	Yours are crude

THE MUSIC FART

THE MUSIC FART

This fart can be done in a music class (common) or, so melodiously that the angels seem to want to sing along with it, and you're sorry you didn't record it (rare). The smell is not a distinguishing feature here, rather the sound alone defines this fart. Those of you who saw the movie, Amadeus, will remember that Mozart was a great farter, which I thought I'd mention here in the hope of giving this book a little more class.

THE WORKOUT FART

Gyms are always great places to get away with farting. They're big and noisy and have lots of air movement which is just as well since exercise seems to bring out the gas in most students. If sit-ups are part of the workout and if a coach or gym teacher has paired you off, what's normally a healthy burst of relief becomes downright hell for the poor person holding your feet.

THE WORKOUT FART

THE AEROBIC FART

THE AEROBIC FART

A very popular fart, especially with the women who seem to make up the majority of every aerobic class. Why do you think they play the music so loud and have everyone waving their arms about?

THE FRONT OF THE CLASS FART

Oh dear, what a terrible place to fart. Mark Tandy used to stand in the front of my grade school class and scratch his ass, but even he didn't fart. Farting in the front of a class is about the most embarrassing fart there is. It's a time when you wish for a hole to open in the floor and a chute beneath to take you straight back to your mother.

THE FRONT OF THE CLASS FART

THE DETENTION FART

THE DETENTION FART

There are two schools of thought about The Detention Fart.

1) Make the room unpleasant enough and the supervising teacher will cut your sentence short.

2) Then again, you can annoy the "warden" to the point where it gets your confinement extended.

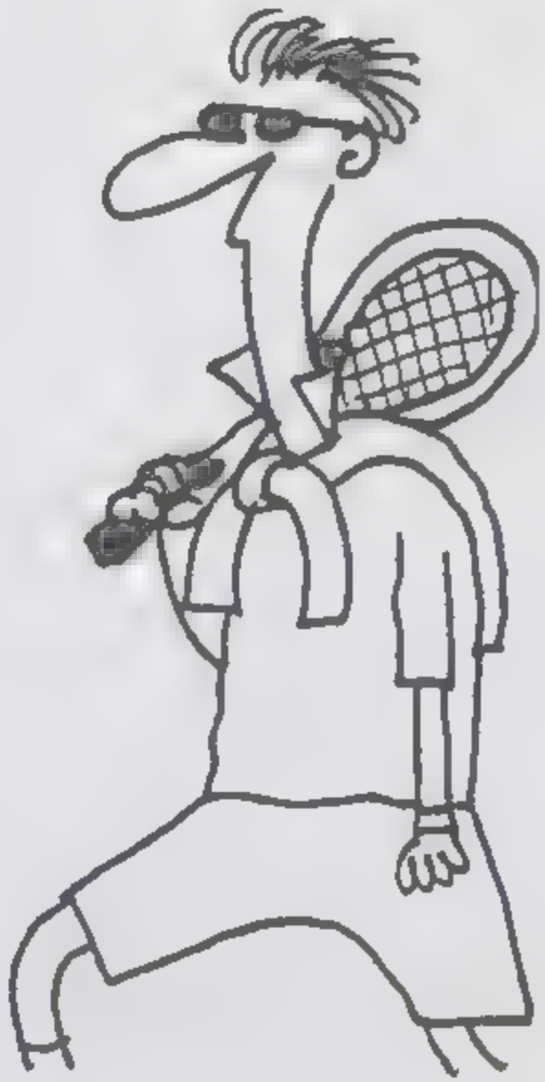
Your choice.

THE ON-LINE FART

Here's total privacy and satisfaction. Safer than a Telephone Fart, more private than even an Under The Cover Fart. No one can hear, no one will know. Go ahead and enjoy.

THE ON-LINE FART

THE PREPPY FART



THE PREPPY FART

The Preppy Fart is pert and perfect, at least to the farter. His or her friends usually think otherwise and give out with an "UGH" in perfect unison. Done too frequently and the Preppy will be estranged to the point of no longer being Preppy.

THE HOMEBOY FART

Confident to the point of being cocky, a solid street-smart fart that seldom elicits comments and is hard to duplicate by outsiders. It's often staccato in delivery and goes perfectly with rap. Non-homeboys try to imitate this fart all the time, but it never fools anyone.

THE CLASS SNEAK FART

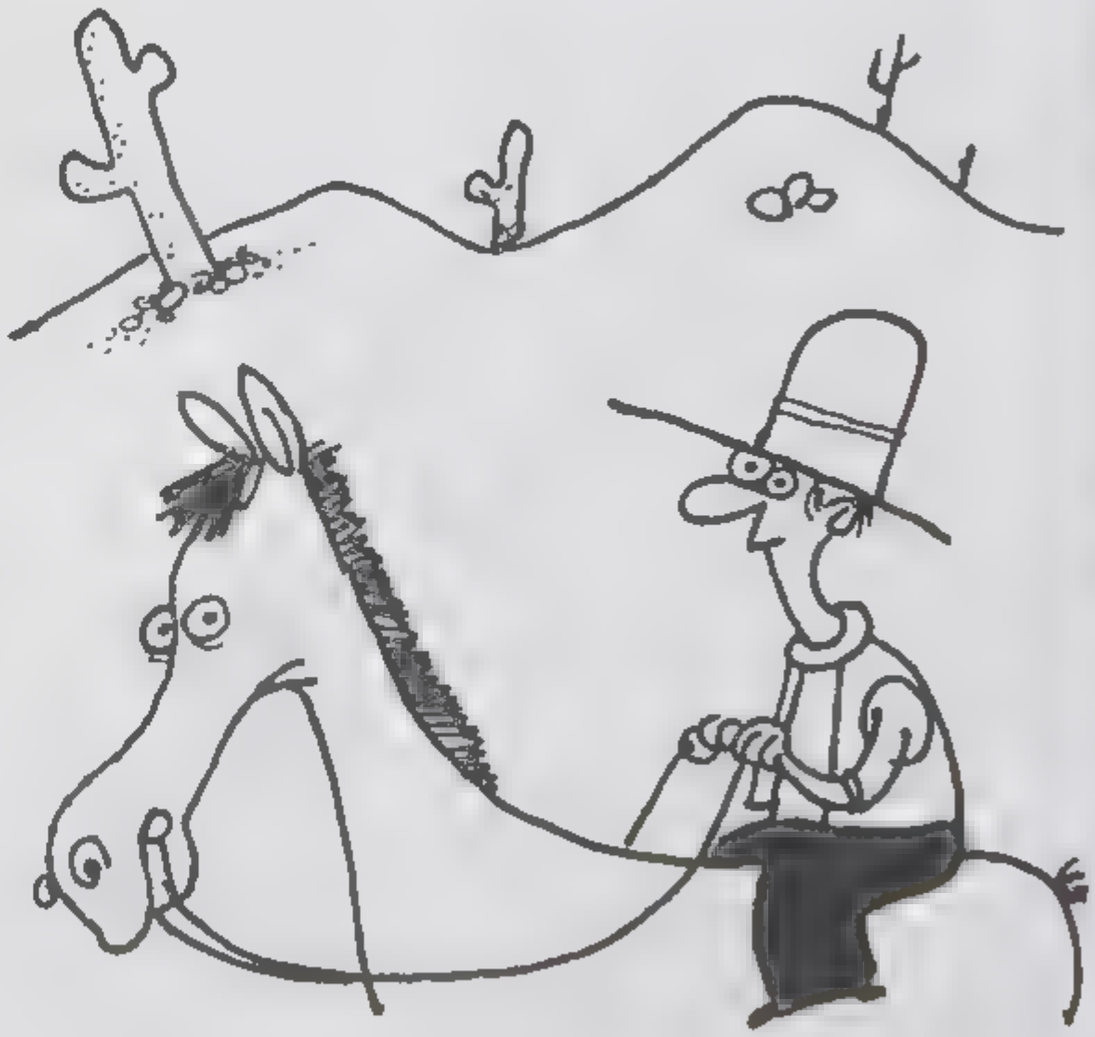
This is a silent, mean fart done by the sneaky kid who is always involved in something rotten. When he farts this one, he usually points to a classmate and says "Whew, Michael cut a beaut," or something like that, leaving Michael to unsuccessfully try to prove his innocence. The class sneak doesn't win many friends, but he rarely gets caught farting.

THE TEX-MEX FART

This can be a fart by a student from the Southwest who understands eight words of Spanish or someone pretending to be a sort of cowboy by eating the hot food. In the latter case, this is a hot fart indeed which can leave your underwear smoldering.

THE TEX-MEX FART



THE VALEDICTORIAN FART

THE VALEDICTORIAN FART

The funny thing about this fart is that the Valedictorian actually thinks his or her farts smell like flowers. Should you complain about the odor, they give you this supercilious look that says you obviously aren't sophisticated enough to appreciate my farts. Don't let them bamboozle you. Their farts are as bad as anyone's and those black gowns they wear at graduation were originally developed to help contain Valedictorian Farts.

THE SENIOR PROM FART

Watch out for this one near the end of the evening when the music is mellow and everyone is slow dancing. The Senior Prom Fart is usually a long rumble caused by sneaking vodka all evening long, but by the time it makes its appearance, everyone is too far gone to notice or care.

THE SENIOR PROM FART

THE OVER-SEXED NERD FART

THE OVER-SEXED NERD FART

I suppose every school has someone like Dave. He was in my class and absolutely obsessed with "girls" and "what he was going to do to them." He'd never get the opportunity. Whenever a situation with a female would start to develop, Dave would get so excited that he would cut loose with a series of small, relatively harmless, but noisy farts. End of romantic setting. So we're including, in memory of Dave, (who incidentally is now a State Senator) a mention of this fart.

THE PRETZEL FART

Only idiots believe in The Pretzel Fart. Pretzels don't cause farts, the beer does, and people who harp on the pretzel fart don't deserve to graduate. Most don't.

THE PRETZEL FART

THE 4-WHEEL-DRIVE FART

THE 4-WHEEL-DRIVE FART

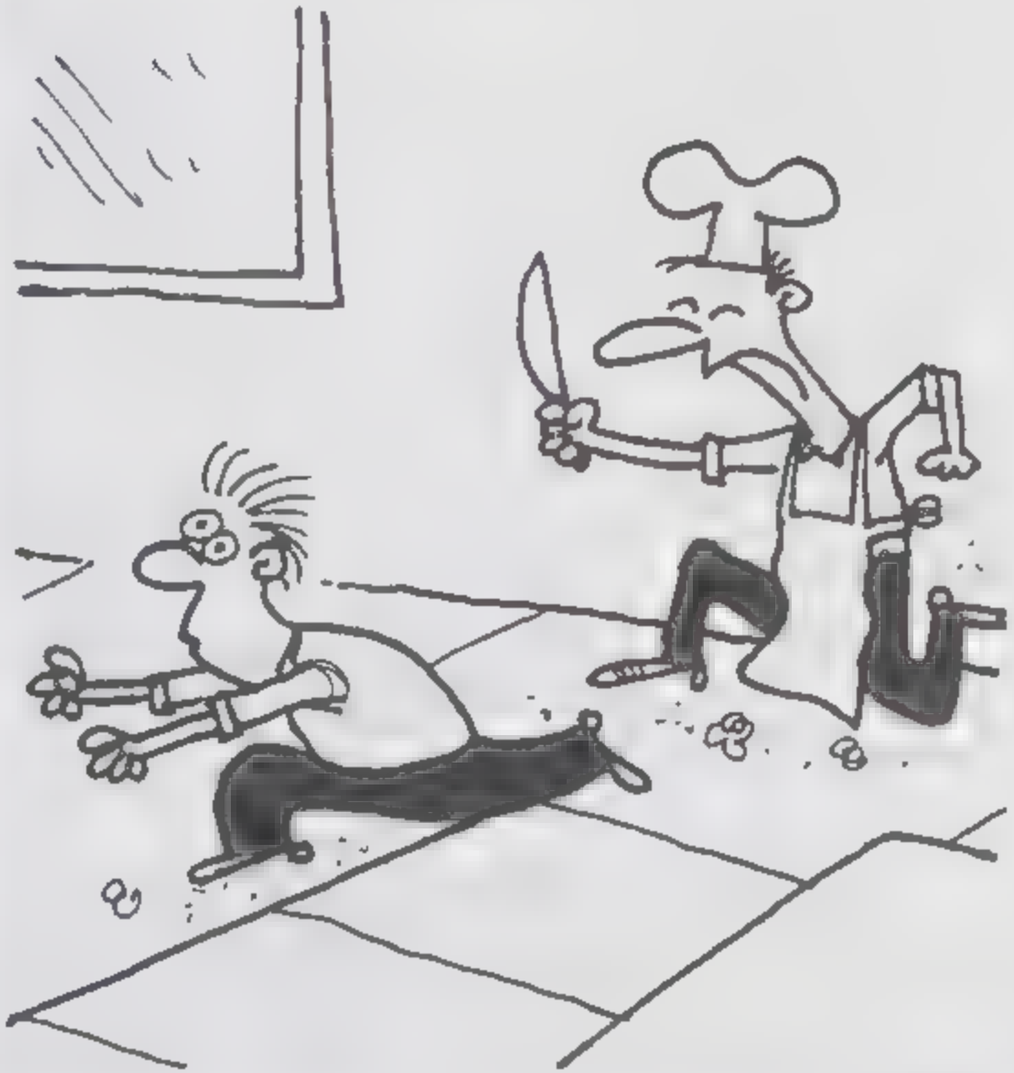
Hey these vehicles can go anywhere and the guys (mostly) try to see just how hairy it can get. The passengers keep up their courage with some liquid refreshments and between that and the terror, there's a lot of partying going on. Nothing special in the way of farts and no one notices them much.

THE HALLOWEEN FART

Go ahead, trick or treat, even though you're really too old for that kid stuff. Then eat the stuff in one mighty binge and see how many friends you have left. The Halloween Fart is a miserable insipid fart caused by eating all the candy all too fast and it sounds like Fleet Fleet Fleet. Your mother told you you'd get sick.

THE HALLOWEEN FART

THE CHINESE FOOD FART



THE CHINESE FOOD FART

Every group of friends has a cleanup man when they go to a Chinese restaurant whose job it is to finish off all the too many dishes you ordered. This is the most likely candidate for the dreaded Chinese Food Fart. About two hours after you've eaten, this individual will cut loose with the most obnoxious farts you have ever smelled. The Chinese Food Fart has a horrible stench but two minutes later, it has gone away.

THE BACK RUB FART

Say the guy is putting the move on this chick and things are getting friendly enough for him to offer a little back rub. There he is, trying to arouse her with his touch, and perhaps he's already worked off her bra. Then maybe she's just too relaxed or he rubs a little too hard, and he seems to squeeze a little fart out of the object of his intentions. Well there's no harm done and he's certainly not going to let it interfere, and she's too embarrassed to move so the back rub continues.

THE BACK RUB FART

THE MATH QUIZ FART

THE MATH QUIZ FART

This is a fear fart, no doubt about it. There you are, about to take a test for which you haven't studied at all. Mr. Ginzburg gave you all these assignments that you never looked at and now you find yourself alone at the desk and staring at a bunch of numbers that mean nothing to you. Somehow, your body reacts to all this stress by letting out a fart that practically blasts the rest of the students out of the room. This is The Math Quiz Fart and you don't want to be taking a test at times like this.

THE FIRST DATE FART

Almost everyone has experienced this fart at one time or another. You've waited all week for that special moment and now that it has arrived, you find a tremendous pressure building in your bowels. You can plead forgetting something and run for privacy, you can try to hold it and risk exploding, or you can fart away and hope your partner is deaf.

THE FIRST DATE FART

THE LUNCH LADY FART

THE LUNCH LADY FART

This is a fart that you hope and pray never really happens. There she is in all her heavy beauty, preparing the food you eat. The thought of her farting in the vicinity of your lunch is just too horrible to contemplate. Pray all you like, it probably happens all the same.

WHAT KIND OF COMPANY PUBLISHES BOOKS ABOUT FARTS

Ivory Tower is a fine old-line publishing company that publishes many of the fine old-line texts you're probably using in your fine old classroom at this very minute. Your school supervisors or Deans, however, are such a bunch of tightwads that they require competitive bids for many of their texts (yes, you're probably learning from the cheapest textbooks) or they squeeze the publisher until there's hardly any profit left to buy important things like beer, snow boards and fast cars. So to make ends meet and have a little fun, we publish fart books. We publish other stuff too and it's all listed on the next page.
